

September 12th screenings at the Historic Grand Lake Theater- 5:00 p.m -7:30 p.m TICKETS AT: OIFF.ORG

The feature documentary: "THE BRIDGE" directed by Evan Jackson Leong. "THE BRIDGE" will screen followed by a question and answer session with filmmaker.

Fifty years ago, our country grappled with widespread discrimination. In Los Angeles, neighborhood leaders challenged these barriers by establishing a community-focused bank, aiming to deliver the American dream to all. The Bridge explores the struggles, perseverance, and successes of this remarkable journey.

"RENEGADE"

Preceding "The Bridge" we will screen the short film: "RENEGADE" by German Torres. "RENEGADE" Renegade Running, founded by Victor Diaz, is an inclusive run specialty store in Oakland, CA. Bucking the norms of the industry, Diaz's journey with running and his fierce determination led him to create a vibrant and rebellious space, where every runner, especially those often underrepresented, can find a home and be celebrated for who they are.
